1) Visit

roadshow.com.au/interstellar

2) Enter code

3) Choose your redemption portal

Now you're ready to watch anytime, anywhere!

For consumer use only. Not for resale. Redemption code valid only in Australia and New Zealand. UltraViolet account holders must be 18 years or older. The redemption code is valid until its expiry date. Visit www.Roadshow.com.au/UltraViolet for details on the expiry date for this title. Streaming and downloading may not be available after the expiry date. UltraViolet allows streaming and/or downloading and there is no charge incurred to view a title on the UltraViolet service. You may incur bandwidth charges to stream or download a title on the UltraViolet service and you may also incur charges to access titles in a cloud based storage service; you should read the terms of use with your UltraViolet service provider for details. The redemption code gives you access to a copy of the main feature only; special or bonus features are not included or available for streaming or download. The UltraViolet service is not compatible with all devices, and compatible devices are subject to change. Technical support is available through your UltraViolet service provider. Neither Roadshow Films Pty Limited nor any affiliate or related party is responsible for maintaining the UltraViolet service. In order to successfully redeem the redemption code, you must reside in Australia or New Zealand and be registered with an UltraViolet service provider that services those territories. Note: UltraViolet is not currently compatible with iTunes. Check with your UltraViolet service provider for system requirements; these requirements may change from time to time. UltraViolet and the UltraViolet logo and trademarks are used with the authorisation of Digital Entertainment Content Ecosystem (DECE) LLC. All rights reserved.

Subject to expiry. Visit Roadshow.com.au/UltraViolet for expiry date.
